CHAPTER 10

Duties of Superintendents/ Supervisory Staff, Members of The Examination Centre

10.1 Safe Custody of Question Papers:

The Superintendent shall be responsible for safe custody of question papers from the time of taking delivery of sealed packets. He shall keep them in his PERSONAL custody and make sure that no one else possesses a duplicate key of the place where they are kept.

10.2 Superintendent's Residence:

The Superintendent shall, in no case, reside in a student's hostel or in the house of the examinee. Suitable arrangements for residence, consistent with the safe custody of question papers, should be made before hand.

10.3 Opening of the Packet:

The Superintendent shall open the packet containing sealed Question Paper Envelopes only a day before the commencement of an examination in the presence of two witnesses. One of the witnesses must invariably be the Deputy Superintendent, if one has been appointed; the other should preferably be one of the Assistant superintendents. If no one from the Supervisory staff is available then two persons of known respectability may witness the opening of the packet.

The Superintendent and the witnesses shall carefully examine the seals on the outer cover containing sealed Question Paper Envelopes and if found in proper condition with seals un-injured, the following certificate signed by the Superintendent and the two witnesses shall be sent to the Controller of Examinations on the same day.

“We, the undersigned, hereby certify that the sealed parcel containing Question papers for the Examination of the Centre has been examined by us and found to be in proper condition and has been opened in our presence”.

If the cover containing question paper envelopes appears to have been tampered with, the contents should be removed without breaking the seals and the empty cover sent immediately to the Controller of Examinations along with a detailed report.

10.4 Scrutiny of Envelopes containing Question Papers:

The Superintendent shall scrutinize the sealed envelopes indicating the subject, paper, number of copies, etc. and shall:

- I. Check the total number of envelopes.
- II. Compare the subjects indicated on the envelopes with the Date Sheet and the Centre statement in order to make sure that question papers for a particular subject are not missing.
- III. Ascertain that the number of copies of Question Papers for various subjects are sufficient for the centre.
- IV. See that the seals had not been damaged in transit.
- V. The Superintendent shall report any discrepancy materially affecting the conduct of examinations at the centre to Controller of Examinations IMMEDIATELY by Telephone, Express Telegram or by some other means.
- VI. The Superintendent shall submit the following certificate countersigned by two witnesses in regard to scrutiny at of envelopes containing Question Papers:

- VII. “The packet containing envelopes of question papers was opened in presence of the undersigned today. The contents were correct according to the Date Sheet and Centre Statement. The envelopes did not appear to be tampered with. The envelopes NOTED BELOW were damaged in transit and have been securely enclosed immediately in another cover which has been sealed by a seal in the possession of the Deputy Superintendent”.

10.5 Opening of Question Paper Envelopes:

- I. The superintendent shall open each envelope containing question papers in the Examination Hall on the date and hour fixed for examination in the presence of two witnesses after verifying the subject by a reference to the date sheet and carefully examining the condition of the envelope and the seals. If the envelope is found in proper condition, the Superintendent shall open with a pen knife the flap side of the envelope leaving the seals Intact for Inspection.

The opening certificate printed on the flap side of the question paper envelopes shall be signed by the Superintendent and countersigned by two witnesses.

The empty envelopes should be carefully preserved and after the termination of the examination, sent to the Controller of Examinations along with balance of question papers.

- II. Before opening an envelope containing question papers, the Superintendent should ascertain if candidates are present for that particular paper. If no candidate is present, the envelope should not be opened but sent to the Controller of Examinations (by name) with a forwarding letter.
- III. The Superintendent shall, before distributing the papers to candidates, check the envelope opened by him that it contains the paper indicated on the envelope and mentioned in the Date Sheet. In case of discrepancy, instructions should be promptly obtained from the Controller of Examinations.

10.6 Penalty for Opening a Wrong Envelope:

No honorarium will be paid to a Superintendent who, through an oversight, opens a packet containing question papers meant for some other day. The Deputy Superintendent and the Assistant Superintendent, who have acted as witnesses for opening the envelopes, shall not be paid any remuneration. The matter shall be reported to the Vice-Chancellor/Controller of Examinations for such other action as may be considered necessary.

10.7 Dispatch of Question Papers to the University:

The Superintendent shall forward a copy of the question paper to the University along with the answer books of candidates.

10.8 Misprints in Question Papers:

The Superintendent shall immediately bring to the notice of the Controller of Examinations any misprint or ambiguity in a question paper.

10.9 Prevention of Leakage of Question Papers in a Centre:

To prevent the possibility of questions on any subject being known at another centre before time:

- I. No person, including menials, should be allowed to leave the examination hall till the expiry of half an hour after the commencement of the examination.

- II. No copy of the question paper should be allowed to go out of the hall before the expiry of half the time.
- III. No candidate should be permitted to leave the examination hall until the expiry of an hour after the distribution of the paper.
- IV. Candidates leaving the examination hall before the expiry of half the time should not be allowed to take their question papers with them.
- V. The Superintendent should not allow any member of the Supervisory staff to read a question paper or keep it in his possession.
- VI. The Superintendent should keep Spare copies of question papers after distribution IN SAFE CUSTODY AND NOT LYING OPEN ON THE TABLE.
- VII. The Superintendent should not give the question papers to anyone but return the balance to the University Office. Inspectors of Examination Centers shall invariably check the balance of question papers.

10.10 Admission of Candidates:

- I. The Superintendent shall compare particulars of candidates appearing at the Centre with the list (Centre Statement) showing names of candidates, optional subjects offered and total number of candidates appearing for various subjects in the examination. The Superintendent shall not admit any candidate whose name does not exist in the confidential list of candidates for that Centre or about whom he has no directions from the Controller of Examinations.
- II. If, at a place, where there are more than one centers of Examination and a candidate presents himself for examination at a centre not allotted to him originally, the Superintendent shall if there is sufficient time, direct the candidate to go to the centre originally allotted to him. If, however there is not sufficient time, the Superintendent may allow the candidate to take the examination at his centre for that day only and should report the case to the Controller of Examinations. He should also inform the Superintendent of the Centre to which the candidate originally belonged.
- III. The Superintendent shall collect the roll Number slips issued to Candidate and should check the candidates with photo given on Roll Number Slip as authority for admission to the examination centre.
- IV. If a candidate is unable to produce the Roll Number slip on demand, he should be allowed to take the examination provisionally, provided his name exists in the attendance list and should be asked to obtain a duplicate roll number slip from the University on the prescribed payment. This measure is necessary to avoid impersonation. The confirmation in case of candidate admitted provisionally should be obtained from the Controller of Examinations by Telephone/Mobile phone or by any other convenient method. The following certificate, signed by the candidate and countersigned by the Superintendent, should be obtained from him:

I.....son/daughter of a candidate listed under Roll No.....for the Examination.....do hereby declare that in the absence of any authority issued on behalf of the University of Malakand by its Controller of Examinations. I have solicited the favor of appearing at the Centre named below at my own risk and responsibility and that the University or any member of its supervising staff incurs no liability what so ever by permitting me to take my examination at this centre. I will further abide by the orders of the University whose decision shall be final.

V. Stray Answer Books:

Answer books of candidates admitted under rule 12 are to be treated as stray answer books and should be sent separately under registered parcel post to the Controller of Examinations (by name) under double cover, the inner cover to be labeled as under:

STRAY ANSWER-BOOKS

Subject.....paper.....Examination Roll Nos.....

Centre.....Reasons in brief.....

10.11 Discrepancy in the Subject Offered:

The Superintendent shall not ordinarily allow any candidate to appear in the subject other than that shown against his name in the confidential list of candidates. If, however, a candidate insists that he had offered a subject not shown in the confidential list, the Superintendent shall allow him to appear provisionally in that subject and send intimation to this effect to the Deputy Controller of Examinations by registered post.

10.12 All Examinations shall start as per given time on the Date Sheet:

- I. The Superintendent shall open doors of examination Hall each day half an hour before time specified for distribution of question papers.
- II. No candidate shall be admitted to the Examination Hall for any reason whatsoever, after commencement of Examination.
- III. The Superintendent shall send to the Controller of Examinations list of candidates not admitted to the Examination Hall with reasons for refusal to do so.

10.13 Seating Arrangement:

The Superintendent shall make satisfactory seating arrangements a day before the commencement of the examination. Candidates shall be seated in such a manner as to render any inter-communication impossible. Candidates belonging to same institution must be seated well apart and candidates from the institution where the examination is being held must be seated in main hall under direct supervision of the Superintendent.

10.14 Roll Numbers and photographs:

The Superintendent shall write the Roll Number of each candidate with white chalk on each table so that the candidate may easily find his seat. He shall also fix photograph of a candidate on the table, if supplied by the University.

10.15 Plan of the Examination Hall:

The Superintendent shall arrange for getting a plan of the Examination Hall typed showing the seating arrangement as well as the direction in which the candidates are required to face. A copy of the plan should be pasted at a conspicuous place outside the Examination hall a day before the commencement of Examination. After the termination of the examination, a copy of the seating plan shall be sent to the Deputy Controller of Examinations.

10.16 Purdah arrangement for Women Candidates:

In a combined Centre for men and women candidates, the women should preferably be seated in a separate room. A separate bath room should also be arranged for the women candidates. Subject to safeguards against use of unfair means, the Superintendent of the combined centre should, so far as possible, refrain from visiting the room where women candidates are taking their examination.

10.17 Bath Room Arrangements:

The Superintendent should be particularly careful about making arrangements for urinals and latrines for the use of candidates. A commode and a pot might be placed in a suitable place, near the examination hall, if there is no place for latrine or urinal nearby. The Superintendent should see that one of the Assistant Superintendents always accompanies the candidate wishing to make use of the urinal or latrine while the examination is going on. To prevent any possibility of use of unfair means, the urinals or the latrine must be inspected each time before and after a candidate uses it.

10.18 Identification Sheet:

Candidates on their first appearance should be required to write their names and roll Numbers (in their own handwriting) in the Identification sheet. The roll Numbers and the names written by the candidates in the identification sheet should then be compared with the attendance list of candidates. The signatures in the identification sheet should be compared with the signatures of candidates on their Roll Number Slips. If there is any discrepancy, the matter should be reported to the Controller of Examination along with candidate's explanation. His answer books should be sent as stray Answer-Book to the Controller of Examination name). The Identification sheet should be sent to the Deputy Controller of Examinations after the termination of the examination.

10.19 Ink:

No ink will be supplied to candidates by the University. The Superintendent shall not allow any candidate to use any ink other than blue / black ink especially the red.

10.20 Blank Answer Books:

- I. The Superintendent shall not give more than one answer book to a candidate in one paper in any circumstances. Continuation sheets should invariably be provided in case the Answer-Book supplied is finished. Candidates should be asked to write on the title page of the Answer-Book, the number of sheets attached and the Assistant Superintendent concerned should, in the presence of the candidate, verify this statement when receiving the Answer-Books otherwise the responsibility of loss, if any, would be that of the assistant Superintendent.
- II. The Stapler to staple the sheets should be supplied by the Superintendent. To avoid detachment, candidates should be asked to check that the continuation sheets are properly stapled. Assistant Superintendent should be instructed to see that the blank continuation sheets supplied to candidates are stitched immediately.
- III. The Superintendent should keep a regular record of the blank Answer-Books and utilized Answer-Books every day in every paper and should strike balances per session. The prescribed form should be submitted to the Deputy Controller of Examinations duly filled in, along with Superintendent's bill after the termination of the Examination.
- IV. The Superintendent shall be responsible for safe Custody of blank Answer-Books. He should make sure that he has received all the bundles sent by the University and that they are intact.

10.21 Filling up of Memos:

- I. Memos must be filled in correctly giving all details in full for each paper. Roll Nos. of candidates whose Answer-Books are dispatched must tally with those given on the Answer-Books as well as in the attendance list of candidates supplied by the University. Roll Numbers of Candidates present as well as absent must be correctly mentioned in the Memo.
- II. Roll No's of the absenting Candidates may be forwarded to the Secrecy Section on the Cell Number, forwarded for the purpose.

10.22 Wrong Roll Number on an Answer-Book:

- I. Candidates sometimes either through carelessness or inadvertence, omit or wrongly write their Roll-Numbers on the Answer-Books. Such an omission or mistake when passed by the Superintendent un-noticed involves serious complications in the University. To avoid this, the Superintendent must take special care to compare the Roll Numbers written on the Answer-Books with those given in the Attendance List of candidates. When an Answer-Book with a wrong roll Number is discovered in course of this comparison or otherwise, the Superintendent should send the Answer-Book to the Controller of examination (by name) with an explanatory note. He should not make the correction himself.
- II. In case of two Answer-Books bearing the same Roll Number, the Superintendent should obtain explanation from the candidates and send the case to the Controller of Examinations as Unfair Means case (by Name).
- III. The Superintendent should also ask the candidates to be particularly careful in writing their roll Numbers correctly and legibly on the Answer-Books. Attention of Assistant Superintendent should also be drawn to the relevant instructions in this book under the heading, "Duties of Assistant Superintendents".
- IV. The Superintendent should warn the candidates that in all examinations Roll Numbers should only be written on the perforated portion of the cover of the Answer-Book and nowhere else as other-wise they are liable to the unfair mean case.
- V. All Answer Books should be dispatched to the Controller of Examinations (by name).

10.23 Every Answer-Book supplied to a candidate must be signed as under:-

- I. The signature shall be affixed by the Superintendent or the Deputy Superintendent on the perforated portion of the cover of the answer- book only.
- II. Answer-Book should, IN NO CASE BE SIGNED OR STAMPED BEFORE ISSUE. They must be signed during the course of the examination. Serious notice shall be taken in case of omission of this instruction.

10.24 Use of Drawing Instruments, Stencils etc.:

The Candidates may bring their own drawing instruments with them for their examination in Mathematics. No ruler or instruments of any kind are to be used either in the sketch or the finished drawing. Candidates in Physics and Chemistry may use stencils.

10.25 Illness of a candidate in the examination hall:

In case a candidate falls ill in the Examination Hall, the Superintendent may send him for a qualified doctor for treatment, if the candidate so desires. The Doctor's fee in all such cases shall be paid by the candidate concerned and not by University.

10.26 Amanuensis:

Superintendents are not allowed to sanction amanuensis under any circumstances. In case of emergency, he will have to inform the Controller of Examinations or the Dy. Controller of Examinations whose decision shall be final.

10.27 Collection of Answer-Books:

Immediately after the expiry of time allotted for a paper, the Answer-Books should be carefully collected and the examination hall cleared of all candidates. Under no circumstances should the candidates be asked by the Superintendent to leave their Answer-Books on the tables.

The Superintendent should instruct the candidates that they are not to leave the examination hall without handing over the Answer-Books to the Assistant Superintendent of their section. The candidates should remain seated and not leave their places until the answer books have been collected by the Assistant Superintendent concerned. The Assistant Superintendent should then arrange the answer books of his section serially and hand them over to Superintendent or the Deputy Superintendent. Care should be taken to insert absentee slips in lieu of the Answer-Books of absentees.

Assistant Superintendent should see that a candidate who does not attempt even any-part of the question paper nevertheless submits the Answer-Book bearing his roll Number and other particulars required on the title page. Such answer books should be super scribed “Not attempted” in the hand writing of the Superintendent without initials.

10.28 Dispatch of Answer-Books:

All the Answer-Books received each day shall be arranged serially, securely tied, packed in cloth, sealed , be addressed to the Controller of Examinations (by name). and be submitted to Bank Branch specified by the Controller of Examinations for the purpose. In case of an afternoon paper when it is not possible to dispatch the packet on the same day the seal of the Deputy Superintendent should be used. In case the Deputy Superintendent has no seal of his own, the packet may be sealed with the seal of the Superintendent but the seal must remain in the custody of the Deputy Superintendent.

10.29 Special Instructions:

In all examinations, the Memo for the Controller of Examinations must be packed inside the packet along-with the Answer-Books.

10.30 Attendance Charts:

The Attendance Charts duly filled in should be dispatched to the Deputy Controller of Examinations after the termination of the examination.

10.31 Packing of Answer-Books:

When Answer-Books are sent by registered post, the Superintendent should see that they are packed either in cloth-lined envelopes or in cloth cover. Paper envelopes should, in no case be used for this purpose.

10.32 Mode of Dispatch of Answer-Books:

The Superintendent should note the following instructions in regard to Dispatch of Answer-Books:

I. If the affixed on the packet of Answer-Books is in the possession of the Deputy Superintendent, the packet should be dispatched by the Superintendent, otherwise by the deputy Superintendent.

II. Extra care should be given to the small packets to avoid any misplacement.

10.33 Instructions to be read out by the superintendent every day before the commencement of the Examination:

On each and every day of the examination each and every time before the examination begins and also to the candidates who arrive late, the Superintendent shall read out the following rules for the warning of the candidates.

I. Candidate should search their Pockets and deliver to the Superintendent all papers, books or notes or mobile phones which they may have in their possession or anything which can help them in cheating.

II. Candidate should not disclose their identity or make any kind of peculiar marks in the Answer-Books.

III. Candidates should not write their names, the name of their centre, College or District. The private candidates should not write that they are appearing as such.

IV. Candidates should use fictitious names like A,B,C, or X,Y,Z, if they have been asked to write a letter.

V. Any infringement of these rules will be dealt with under Unfair Means Regulations/Bye-Laws.

VI. The Superintendent shall forward to the Deputy Controller of Examinations on the termination of an examination a declaration signed by him and witnessed by Deputy Superintendent to the effect that he did read out the instructions to the Candidates and called upon them to surrender all papers, books or notes mobile phone in their possession.

10.34 Possession of weapons inside the Hall:

Candidates found in possession of fire arms or anything capable of being used as weapon of offence in or around any examination hall, shall be liable to expulsion from the hall and disqualification ranging between one and two years or a longer periods in accordance with Law/Rules.

10.35 Explanation of the candidates using Unfair Means:

I. When the Superintendent takes action against candidates using or attempting to use Unfair Means he should invariably demand written explanation or statement of the candidate concerned. If any candidate refused to give his statement, the fact should be noted in the report.

II. The Superintendent has the right of asking the candidates to leave the examination hall when he suspects the candidate of using unfair means. He, however, cannot prevent the candidate from taking the Examination in subsequent papers.

When a candidate is detected using unfair means, the Superintendent should take care that his report is always full and complete in every respect and includes all the known facts and relevant circumstances of the case and other evidence. Each unfair means case must be submitted with a separate report. While submitting a copy of the seating plan along-with the unfair means case of any candidate, the Superintendent, should show by an arrow which way the candidate was facing. The Superintendent should submit his report on the prescribed form and send it to the Controller of Examinations (by name) along with the Answer-Book of the candidate.

- III. Supervisory staff at a centre in addition to the Superintendent will be as follows:
 - (a) Deputy Superintendents
 - (b) Assistant Superintendents

10.36 Deputy Superintendent:

- I. One Deputy Superintendent shall be appointed at each centre of examination in addition to the required number of Asstt: Superintendents.
- II. If the number of candidates appearing at a centre is ten or less, the Superintendent and the Deputy Superintendent will supervise without the assistance of another Assistant Superintendent.

10.37 Assistant Superintendents:

- I. If the number of Candidates is ten or less, no Assistant Superintendent will be appointed.
- II. One Assistant Superintendent for candidates exceeding 10 but not exceeding 40 will be allowed. If the number is above 40 but not above 80, two while numbers above 80 but not above 120, three Asstt: Superintendents will be allowed and so on.
- III. The no of Assistant Superintendents may be increased as per actual space where no proper Hall is available.

10.38 The rule (one Assistant Superintendent for every forty candidates)

- I. Applies to each hall or room used as a centre and not to the centre as a whole. The number of rooms used and the number of candidates Seated in each room must invariably be stated in the Assistant Superintendents bill against each date. No extra Assistant Superintendent will be sanctioned except extremely exceptional cases when the previous sanction of the Controller of Examination should be obtained. This sanction should be attached to the bill to avoid unnecessary correspondence and delay in payment.
- II. In a Combined centre where girl candidates are seated in a Separate room, a lady Deputy Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent should invariably be appointed. If the number of girl candidates at a combined centre is ten or more, a lady Deputy Superintendent will be appointed to supervise in the separate room for girls. But if the number of girl candidates at a centre is less than ten, a lady Asstt: Superintendent will be appointed at that centre.

10.39 Duties of Assistant Superintendents to be read out:

- I. The Superintendent should read out and explain to the Assistant Superintendents their duties on the first day of examination.
- II. The Superintendent shall keep and preserve for six months accurate in every detail, a list of duties allotted by him to each Assistant Superintendent. He shall have a signed statement from every Assistant Superintendent showing the Roll Numbers which the latter was supervising on each day of his duty. Similar record shall be kept in respect of the Deputy Superintendent also.
- III. The Superintendent should also secure a certificate from the Deputy Superintendent and each Assistant Superintendent that there was no relative or a candidate privately coached by him at that centre. The Superintendent shall not allow an Assistant Superintendent to work at the centre where the latter's relative or a candidate coached by him is appearing.

- IV. Teachers should always be preferred for appointment as Assistant Superintendents.
- V. As far as possible, no person should be appointed as Assistant Superintendent at centre where candidates belonging to his own institution are taking their examination.

10.40 The Superintendent of examination centre should in no circumstances:

APPENDIX - I

10.48 Duties of Deputy Superintendents:

I. General Duties:

The General Duties of Deputy Superintendents are:

- To assist the Superintendent in the Control of the Centre;
 - To assist the Superintendent in carrying correspondence etc.;
 - To take charge of the Examination Centre in case of an accident to the Superintendent.
- II. Each Deputy Superintendent must get in touch with the Superintendent as early as possible so that he can be present when the Superintendent opens the parcel/s containing envelopes of question papers one day before the Examination. He must see that the parcel is intact and bears no marks of being tampered with.
 - III. The Deputy Superintendent must help the Superintendent in checking up the Envelopes. The Superintendent and the Deputy Superintendent have to satisfy themselves that they have all the question papers for the subjects of examinations at their centre. Figures on the envelope have to be compared with the Centre Statement to ascertain that each envelope contains sufficient number of copies of question papers for the candidates appearing in each subject. If there is any discrepancy, the Superintendent should at once inform the Controller of Examinations Telegraphically or through any other expeditious means of communication. In case of no response from Controller of Examinations' Office the Superintendent should take such measures so that the examination may not be effected.

- IV. The Deputy Superintendent has to examine the envelopes and see that seals are intact.
- V. If a seal is broken he will place his own seal alongside the broken one, if he had no seal at the moment any blank impression may be made across which he should sign;
- VI. If the envelope is torn or otherwise damaged, the Deputy Superintendent and the Superintendent will initial the place and then enclose the envelope in another large envelope or pack it up in a large sheet of strong packing paper. The new packet should have the impression of the Deputy Superintendent's seal. If the damage is slight, the cut or opening should be repaired by pasting a piece of paper which should be sealed by the Deputy Superintendent;
- VII. If the envelope containing question papers is found tampered with or the seals injured on any particular day, he will not sign the certificate and shall inform the Controller of Examinations, telephonically, if it is found necessary to repack the envelope as suggested in Para (b) above, care should be taken to indicate the paper correctly on the outer cover. The Deputy Superintendent and the Superintendent will be held equally responsible for the correctness of this entry.
- VIII. When the candidates are distributed in a number of room, he will help the Superintendent in general supervision. If there is any distribution of duties, he will not supervise the section containing candidates from his own institution, if any.
- IX. The Deputy Superintendent will, invariably, be one of the witnesses of the opening of the question papers. He will examine the seals and condition of the envelopes carefully every time and satisfy himself that is in the same state as seen by him on the opening of the packet before the examination. He must make certain that the paper to be opened is in accordance with the date sheet. The Supreme responsibility rests with the Superintendent and the appointment of Deputy Superintendent does not relieve him of it, but if it is found that the Deputy Superintendent has not been careful in the Scrutiny of the envelope or if a wrong paper is distributed he will be deemed to have been guilty of gross neglect and will be reported to the Vice Chancellor/power delegated to Controller of Examinations for disqualification or for any other action which may be necessary.
- X. The Deputy Superintendent will assist the Superintendent generally. He will not leave the station without the Controller of Examination's permission and will take over the duties of Superintendent in case of any accident to the Superintendent and report the matter to the Controller of Examinations immediately.
- XI. The Deputy Superintendent must equip himself with a seal for the purpose mentioned above at 4(a) and (b). No charges on that account will be paid by the University. In all examination the Answer-Books shall be signed or stamped on the perforated portion of the title page provided for writing Roll Number.
